APPENDIX A

NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO AN APPLICATION TO TRANSFER A PREMISES LICENCE HOLDER

(LICENSING ACT 2003, SECTION 42 [6])

To: Mr. Kay Cleary, Halton Council
(The Relevant Licensing Authority)

Mr. Murat KUZU, 449, Grasmere Avenue, Warrington, WA2 0LA
(Applicant)

I, Sarah Boycott, Chief Superintendent of Police, of the Cheshire Constabulary HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that I object to the Transfer of the Premises Licence of the premises known as Carlo's Pizza, 13, High Street, Runcorn, WA7 1AP.

The grounds on which I shall object are inter alia :-

1. Carlo's Pizza is presently subject of Review Proceedings. Any attempt to transfer this Premises Licence would be an artifice to try and circumvent the Review process and limit, or otherwise restrict, the powers of disposal of the Licensing Committee.
2. This application was submitted within just 24 hours of the police action which precipitated the Review of the Premises Licence, whilst the applicant has been associated with the site for some time. This application is an attempt to legitimize his presence.
3. The grounds for the Review are serious matters, employing illegal immigrants and having young vulnerable children staying on site, and it is believed that this Transfer will further facilitate one or both of these matters.

Should this Transfer Application be granted I believe that it will seriously undermine both the Crime and Disorder and Protection from Children from Harm Licensing Objectives of the Licensing Act 2003.

Dated : 27th of November 2014

Signed on behalf of Ch. Supt. Sarah Boycott.

Ian Seville, Licensing Officer
